FREQUENCIA

Brintons proudly presents our Self Expression Winter 2025 collection from Paul Andino, Senior Designer.

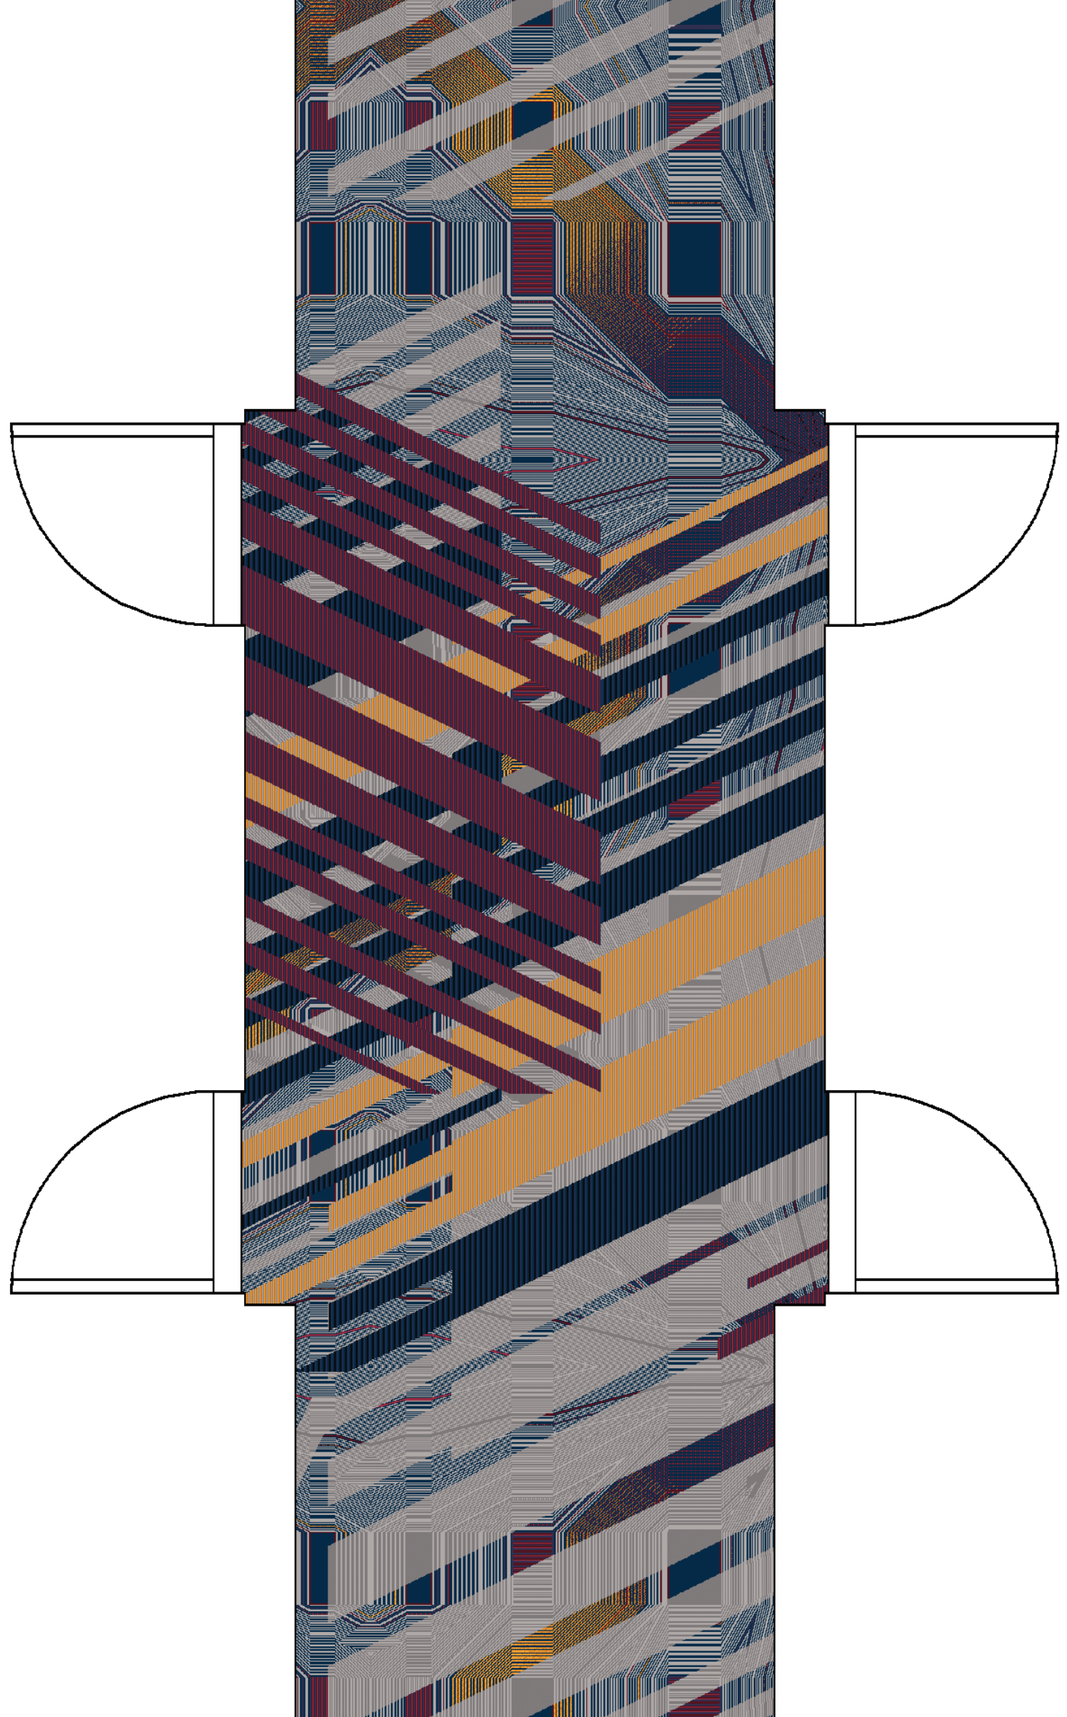

Introducing Frequencia, a carpet collection designed for corridors that embodies the spirit of innovation and the boundless potential of the future. Drawing inspiration from the dynamic force of human progress, this collection seamlessly merges influences from ancient civilizations with futuristic elements, offering eleven repeating patterns and ten corridor concepts.

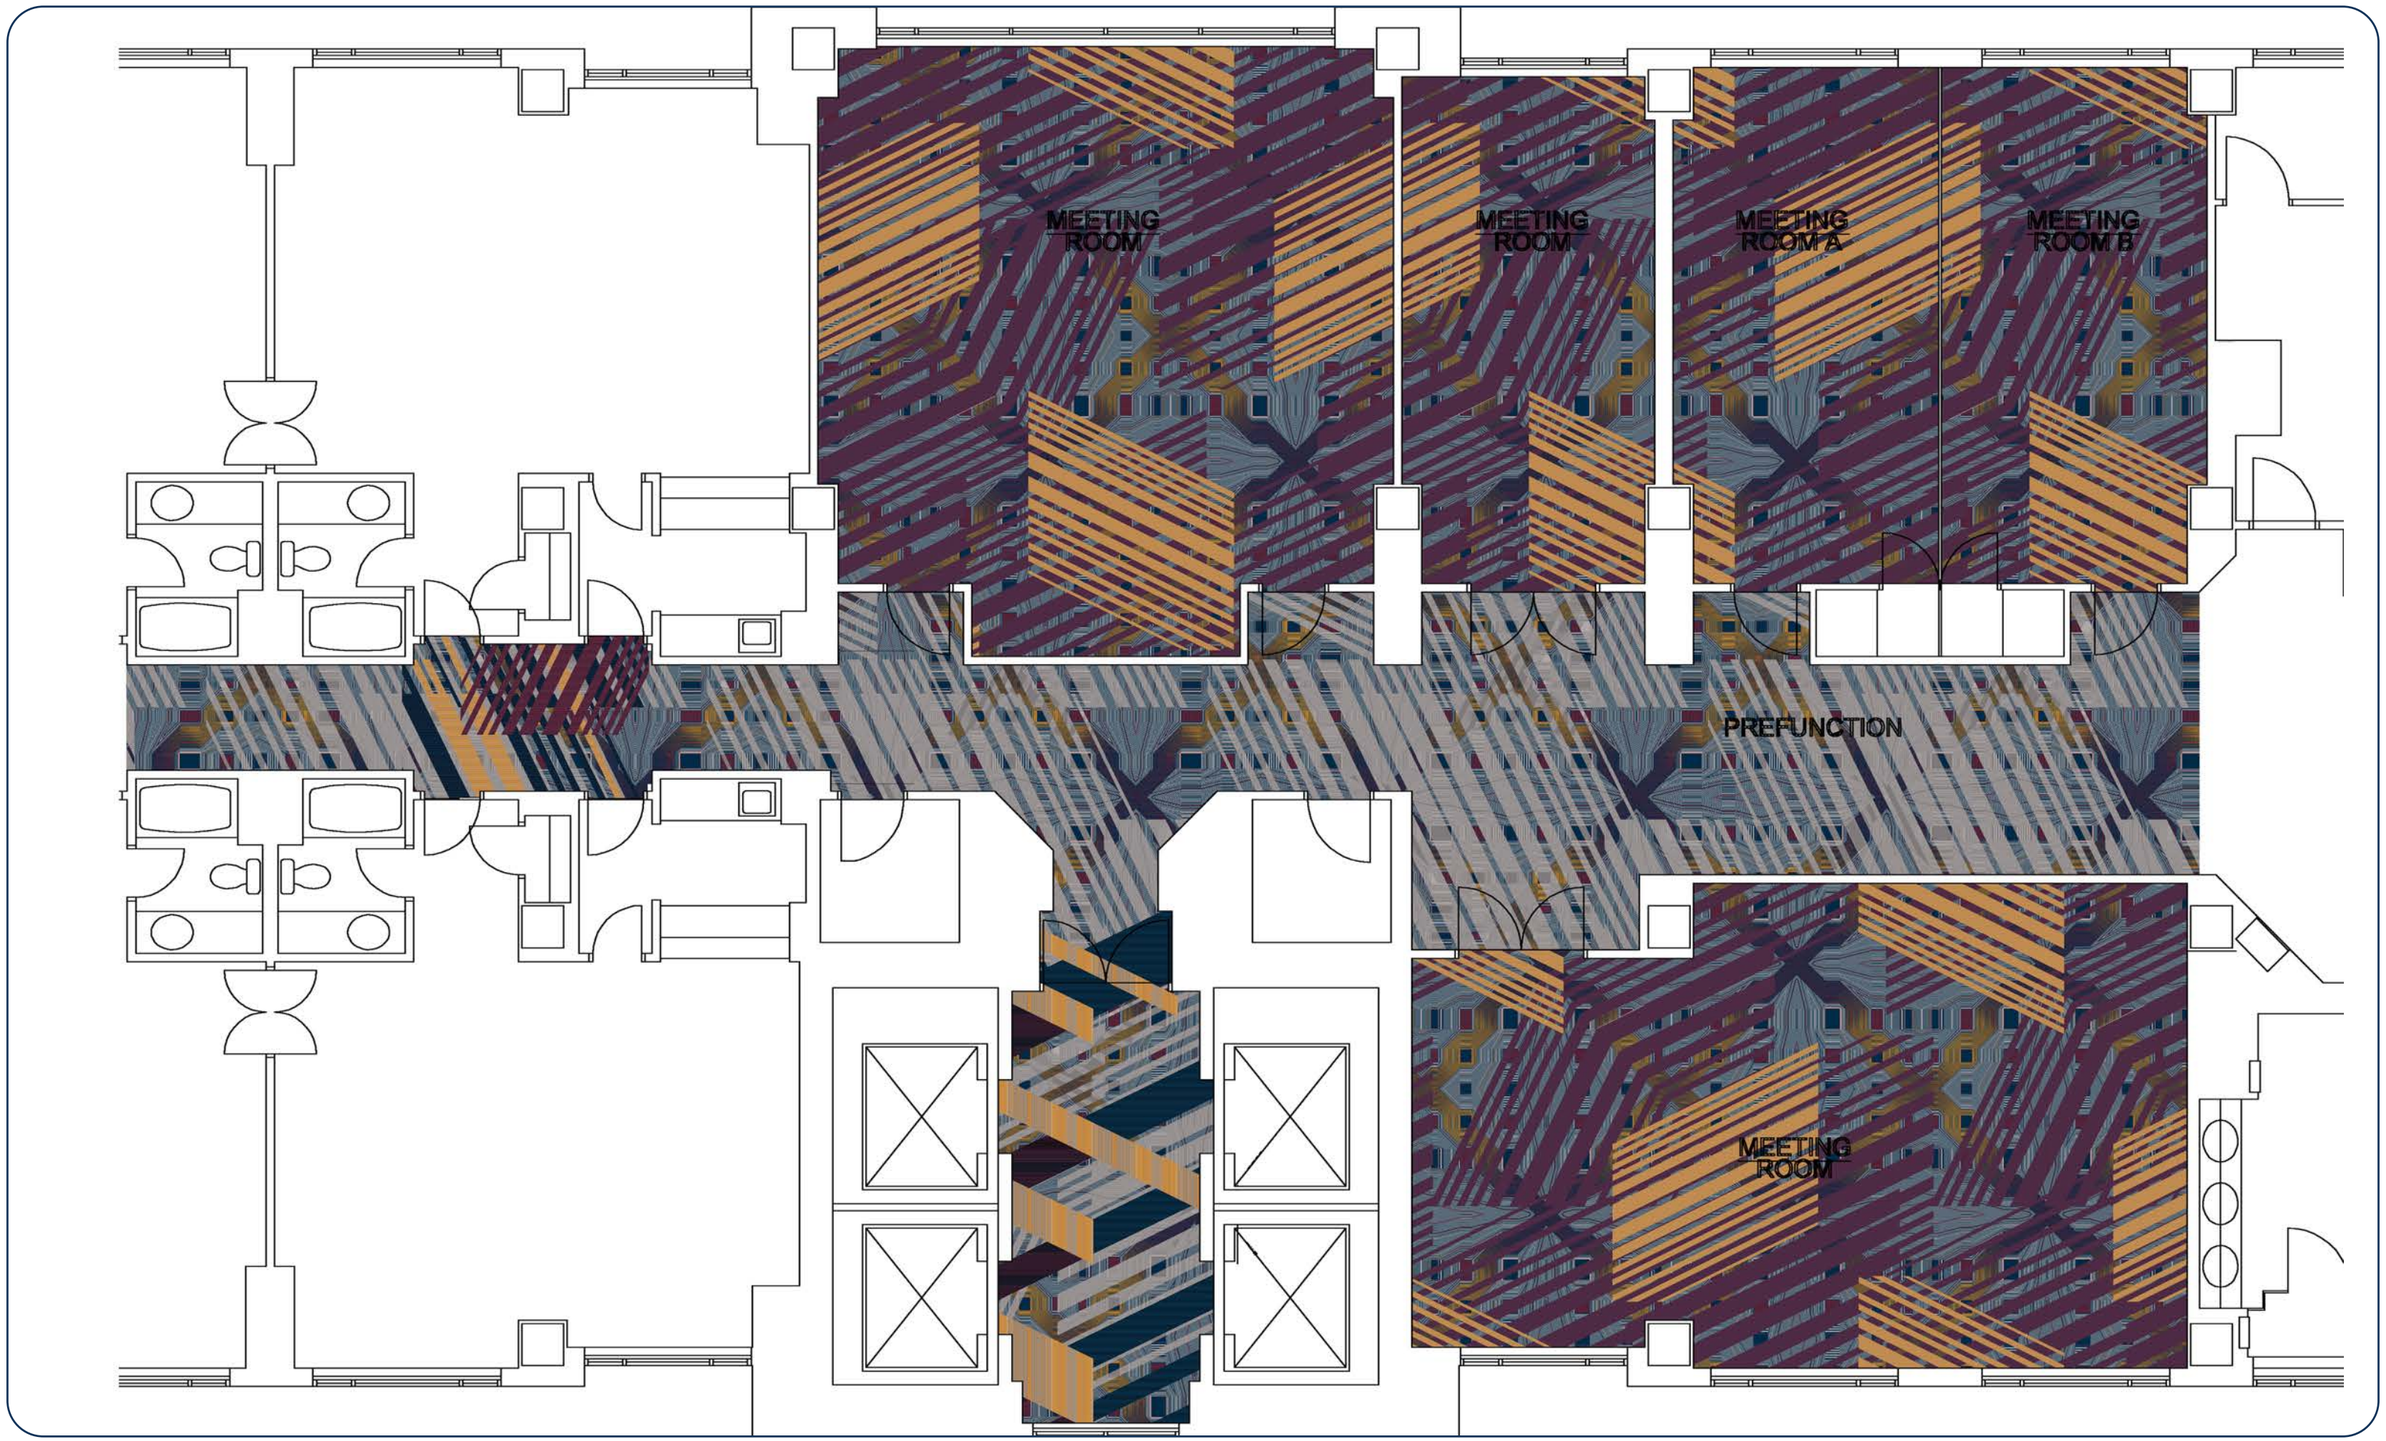

Frequencia bridges the past and the future, capturing the flow of frequencies, the glow of fiber optics, and the brilliance of metals. It evokes themes of quantum innovation, cybernetics, and neural connections, offering a journey through time and space. Each pattern reflects the energy of connectivity and the promise of transcendence.

More than just a carpet collection, Frequencia is a visual manifestation of a vision for a brighter, more interconnected tomorrow.

FREQUENCIA

"The idea of this collection is driven by the constant evolution of technology, mechanics, and human ingenuity that influence every aspect of our lives.

I envisioned early civilizations like the Incas and Egyptians, the mysteries of the Nazca Lines, and the boundless possibilities of space exploration to the Moon and Mars in the future.

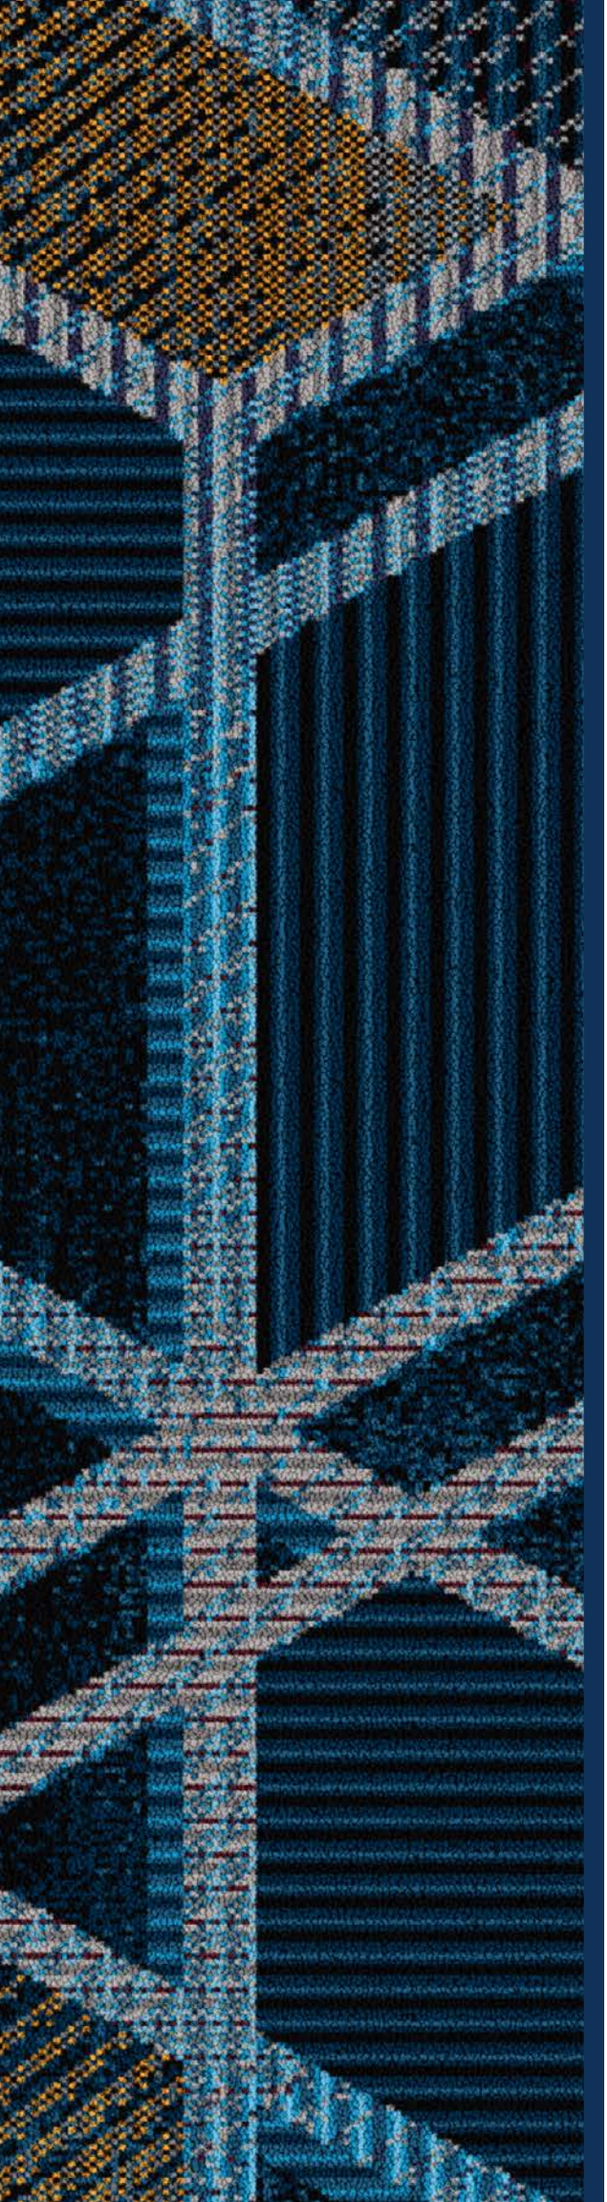

Paul Andino
Senior Field Designer

It's about the synergy between humans and machines, working together to propel us forward.

The concept weaves together themes of connection, frequency, electromagnetic fields, metals, fiber optics, and the flow of information—all underpinned by a hope for a stronger, better tomorrow."
