Hiraeth

Brintons proudly presents our Self Expression Fall 2024 collection from Katharine Swift, Senior Designer.

Hiraeth is a new and captivating collection of designs meticulously created to evoke a profound sense of belonging. Drawing inspiration from the rich landscapes of the English countryside, Hiraeth introduces eight new abstract patterns that reflect the harmony between nature and heritage.

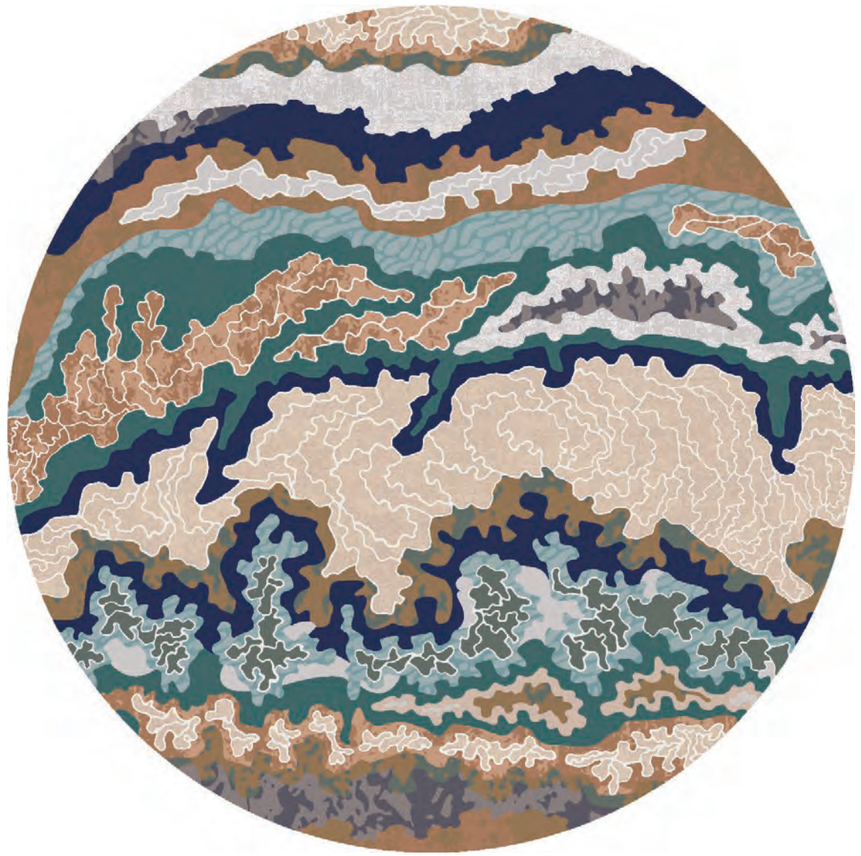

Each design is a tribute to the rolling hills, historic mills, and the deep emotional connection we feel to places that resonate as home.

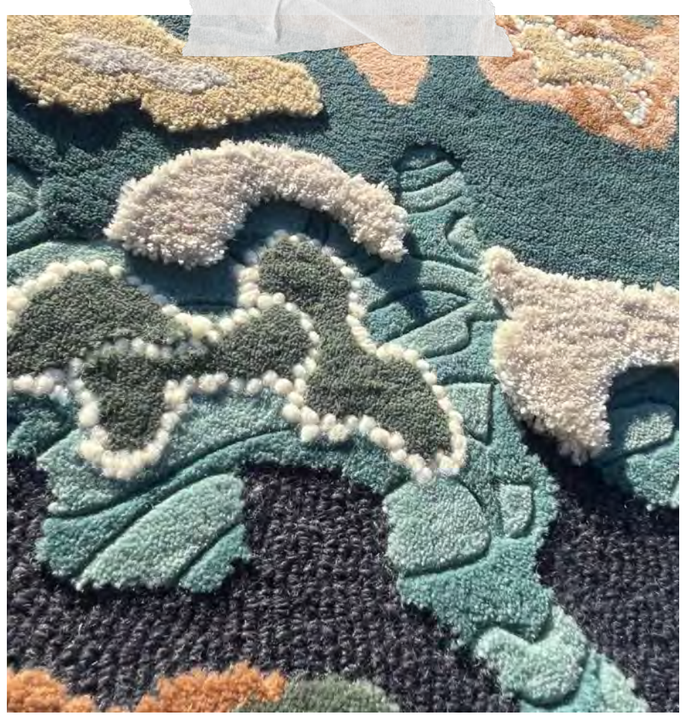

Hiraeth is more than just a collection of beautiful patterns; it is an invitation to immerse yourself in a world where art and tradition intertwine. Every piece offers a sense of warmth, comfort, and connection, transforming any space it adorns into a place of true belonging.

Hiraeth

"Hiraeth evokes a sense of belonging to a place, feeling as though you have somehow been there before, a sense of contentment as you step into the rich tapestry of English landscapes steeped in industrial heritage.

Five years ago, I found my forever place on a beautiful 18-acre farm nestled in the Lancashire hills, somewhere not particularly known for its beauty—quite the opposite, in fact—with its industrial heritage of cotton mills and textile manufacturing.

This harsh contrast between the countryside and industry intrigued me, leading me to create abstract landscapes drawn from a series of photographs of hills and mills. I developed these using palette knives, thick acrylic paints, watercolors, and quill and ink.

Katharine Swift | Senior Designer

Hiraeth emerged from a photographic journey merging the contrasts of the landscape I live in. Intentionally handcrafted and painterly, I wanted to capture each brushstroke and palette knife groove in both Axminster and the versatility of hand-tufted textiles; a textural and sensory reflection of life's beauty and imperfections."
