TERNO

Brintons proudly presents our Self Expression Winter 2026 collection from Cherise Porretto, Senior Designer.

Inspired by the layered construction of the Maria Clara gown, TERNO translates Filipino heritage into a contemporary surface pattern. The collection explores contrast, layering, and reinterpretation—design principles deeply rooted in traditional dress.

Drawing from this visual language, TERNO reimagines plaid through sophisticated layers and nuanced pattern interplay. Shifts in scale, rhythm, and contrast create movement and depth, resulting in designs that feel both dynamic and refined.

By transforming historic dress into a modern carpet expression, TERNO honors cultural legacy while reinterpreting it for today's interiors—offering designs that are rooted yet progressive, rich in story, texture, and creative evolution.

TERNO

"TERNO draws inspiration from the traditional Maria Clara gown and the cherished memories I hold of my grandmother. Because she remains so close to my heart, I wanted her presence to live within this creative space, using the gown as both a visual and emotional foundation.

Cherise Porretto
Senior Designer

My fascination with the Maria Clara began in childhood when my grandmother gave me a version of the dress to wear in a school play. I was immediately captivated by its construction—how unexpected textures and colors came together to form something elegant and harmonious.

This collection explores that sense of unexpected harmony. Guided by the gown's structure, I layer delicate, embroidery-inspired elements with bold, vibrant hues to create a playful yet intentional visual language. Through these woven designs, I honor the past while designing for the present, transforming a deeply personal memory into a celebration of color, culture, and life.

TERNO invites viewers to consider what it means to reinterpret tradition—to preserve its spirit while allowing it to evolve. The Maria Clara gown becomes more than a costume; it emerges as a symbol of continuity, resilience, and personal reinvention. I hope these designs spark curiosity about cultural legacy and encourage deeper engagement with history, identity, and artistic expression."
